

Learning Together Playgroup

With a focus on learning, this supported playgroup, facilitated by an early childhood educator, is a fun way for children to learn with their parents. Parents will be supported to explore their future employment and education pathways.

A course to develop your skills to:

- become more engaged with your children's learning through songs, reading, craft, gardening, food preparation and play.
- connect and engage with other parents
- explore your options for returning to work with free training and employment advice.
